PROLOGUE

Education is not only about learning language, but also about understanding culture and developing meaningful learning experiences. In line with the Merdeka Curriculum, this e-book integrates English learning with local heritage to make learning more contextual and engaging.

My English: English Report Texts through Local Heritage is designed to help eleventh-grade students learn report texts through the exploration of Tangerang Batik as local wisdom. Through guided activities and writing practices, students are expected to improve their English writing skills while appreciating Indonesian cultural heritage.

The author hopes this e-book can be useful for students, teachers, and educators in creating interactive and meaningful English learning. Suggestions and feedback are highly appreciated for future improvement.

PREFACE

Praise be to God Almighty for the creation of the e-book "My English: English Report Texts through Local Heritage" as a teaching material for English language learning, particularly for report text writing skills for high school students.

This e-book is designed by integrating the local wisdom of Tangerang Batik as a learning context, aiming not only to improve students' writing skills but also to foster an appreciation for local culture. Through a constructivist-based learning approach, students are encouraged to actively construct knowledge through a gradual process of observing, analyzing, and writing.

The author recognizes that this e-book still has limitations; therefore, criticism and suggestions are highly appreciated for future improvements. Hopefully, this e-book will be beneficial for students, teachers, and stakeholders in the world of education.
